

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

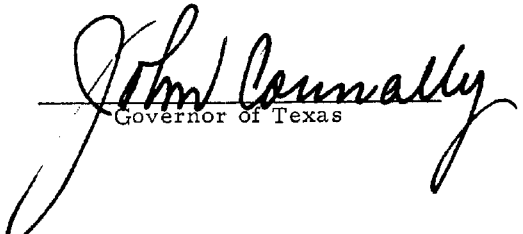

41-1181

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

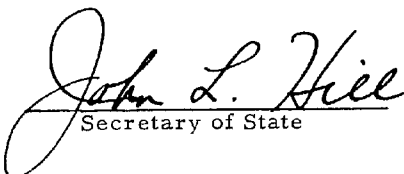

I disapprove and veto H. C. R. No. 140 which provides for a tort action against the State. Considering the doctrine of sovereign immunity, the State would be in no event liable for torts committed by its agents or employees. I see no justification for adding these cases to our already overcrowded court dockets.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 140 was received in the Governor's Office on May 29, 1967, less than 10 days prior to the adjournment of the Regular Session of the 60th Legislature, and in accordance with Article IV, Section 14 of the Constitution of Texas, the Bill, together with this Proclamation, is filed with the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name
officially and caused the seal of state to be affixed hereto at Austin this 18th day of June, 1967.

Governor of Texas
